WARRIOR CAGERS HOST LAVAL, TROIS RIVIERES

Loyola's Basketball Warriors open up second half league play at home this weekend when they host the Laval Rouge et Or on Friday, January 17 at 8 P.M. and the Trois Rivières Patriotes on Sunday, January 19 at 2 P.M.

The Warriors, presently in second place in the Q.U.A.A. behind the Sir George Georgians, are coming off an impressive showing against powerful Wheeling College of West Virginia. Wheeling, two point losers to eastern U.S. power Duquesne, easily disposed of Sir George by 29 points earlier in the week. Against Loyola they were forced to play the whole game and were only up by five in the dying minutes before eventually winning 77-65.

As a prelim to Friday night's Laval game, the first place Tommy hoopsters will clash with second place Laval.

HOCKEY WARRIORS HOST BISHOP'S

Loyola's Hockey Warriors will host the Bishop's Gaiters on Friday evening January 17, at 8:30 P.M. at the Loyola rink.

The Warriors picked up two more victories this past weekend, edging arch-rival Sir George 4-3 on newcomer Rick Moore's third period goal (Moore is a former Georgian standout), and whipping Laurentian Voyageurs 5-1 in exhibition play on Saturday.

WARRIOR FACTS:

Mike Haramis had his two best games of the season over the weekend as he posted 2 goals against Sir George and a single against Laurentian Don Morris, former Warrior Winger, continues to excel on defense . . . Warriors still in second place in the Q.U.A.A., 4 pts. behind Trois Rivières, but with a game in hand . . . Coach Arsenault hopes to have high scoring John Harris back for Bishop's. He's presently in Toronto where his wife is recovering from an illness.
